AN UNTIMELY CALL.

Chairman Jas. West has issued an unexpected call for a meeting of the judicial district committee at Cerulean next Saturday. We say unexpected, because there are as yet no formally announced candidates for either circuit judge or commonwealth's attorney, and the suddenness of the call does not give prospective candidates time to enter the race in order that the committee may give their wishes consideration in fixing the time and manner of making nominations. It is reported with some evidences of reliability that the committee is controlled by the friends of the present judge, who desires to succeed himself and that the plan is to call a primary election for the day of the regular election in November, although the election of district officers will not take place until next year. There are many reasons why a snap primary should not be called in the interest of any one candidate.

That experiment was tried by the State Committee two years ago and we all know the result. The people are sick and tired of machine methods and if the blunder of 1906 is repeated this year in order to relieve Judge Cook of possible opposition in 1909, his slender majority of 127 votes in 1903 will as surely as the sun shines be swept away by the same avalanche that overwhelmed the Democratic party last year and turned a Democratic majority of 27,000 into a Republican majority of 18,000. Taking the figures of the last election, the district is now Democratic by only ten votes and it will be inviting defeat to repeat the same tactics the party refused to stand for last year.

It would be bad enough under normal conditions, but everybody knows that conditions this year are not normal. A question of far greater importance than politics is dividing the white people into two classes, those for law and those for lawlessness. We use the term "white people" advisedly, for nothing ever divides the colored Republican vote. No matter which side of this question Judge Cook may take, he cannot possibly avoid arraying one faction against the other in the Democratic party this fall and the split that must surely follow will work great damage to the presidential ticket. This must be evident to every thinking man. It is no time to bother with the aspirations of office-holders whose terms are not out for sixteen months. Judge Cook and other candidates must submit their claims to a district literally over-run with night riders, kept in subjection by military force. More than 50 are under indictment and at least 150 more have been named in affidavits lodged with county officials. The punishment of these criminals will necessarily be an issue in the campaign, if it is to be precipitated this fall, in the nomination of officers whose duty it is to enforce the law. A year from now this source of party discord will have been removed, the night riders will have been suppressed, the people will have returned to reason, Bryan—let us hope—will then be President and Democrats will be once more united. Then it will be time enough for Democrats to decide whether they want Judge Cook, Judge Bush, Judge Wells, Judge Duffy, Judge Coleman, Judge Hanbery or Judge Bell to be nominated for Circuit Judge. Go slow, Mr. West, go slow!

Cloverport went dry Saturday by 80 votes in a hotly contested election.

The trial of Beach Hargis was expected to begin yesterday at Jackson. A. Floyd Byrd and Senator-elect W. O. Bradley will head respectively the prosecution and the defense.

Republican Congressman Lanning, of Ohio, has been renominated for Congress in spite of the fact that he is under indictment for embezzlement and grand larceny, in connection with a bank failure.

Mr. Bryan will speak in Nashville Sept. 11, Atlanta Sept. 14 and will then go to New York for speeches in several cities and will make three in Ohio beginning Sept. 21. His speaking tour will cover the Middle West and Kern will be sent to the Pacific States.

Among the many popular-priced magazines, the National is distinctive as clinging tenaciously to its personal descriptive and national field, and it makes a refreshing bit of company on the piazza on a hot summer day, when the editor just "comes a-visitin'."

Mrs. Mary Jane Merriam, a sister of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, died from joy at meeting her distinguished brother last week, for the first time in several years. The excitement caused a collapse from which she died in an hour. She was 77 years old and lived in Massachusetts.

Joseph L. Rhinock was renominated for Congress over five opponents by the Democrats of the Sixth district. A light vote was polled in the primary. There was much opposition to Rhinock, but with the opposition divided, his victory was easy. He won by 600 votes.

In an interview at Hot Springs, Va., William H. Taft said one of his first acts, if he were elected President, would be to call an extraordinary session of Congress to revise the tariff. On the same day Senator William Alden Smith, of Michigan, said in a speech that he was opposed to any "tinkering" with the tariff.

A Boyle county man has brought a suit to test the constitutionality of the new school law. He avers that it is invalid because it provides for white and colored schools under same management and is contrary to the public policy of this Commonwealth and in contravention of the constitution of the Commonwealth providing for a separation of schools for white children and negroes.

The day the Calloway grand jury adjourned the barn of Smoot Hendricks, a witness against night riders, was burned. The day the Lyon county grand jury adjourned Moss Dadds, one of the two grand jurors who took issue with the other ten, suffered a similar loss.

Miss Alice Potter, of Elgin, Ill., and three girl friends, went from Chicago to New York in an automobile, traveling alone, and after a week in New York have started home via Buffalo through Canada to Detroit and thence to Chicago.

The petition of the Government for a rehearing by the United States Court of Appeals of the case against the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was filed Friday in Chicago.

Miss Wilfred Parsons, a New York girl, committed suicide in Paris, France, following the death of her fiancé, a Frenchman named Maas. She put a bullet in her brains.

John W. Kern will be notified of his nomination for Vice President at his home in Indianapolis to-day.

This is the last week of vacation for the school children.

Bryan's Prayer at the Cot.

During the St. Louis Republican Convention, twelve years ago, before he ever dreamed of such fame coming to his name, William J. Bryan was housed in the Lindell hotel in a room with several cots. In the early evening, when the lights were turned low, one man found his way to bed early, and as he opened the door he found another tired reporter over by the window scarcely discernible in the shadows of the room. He was kneeling at his bedside, saying his prayers, and that simple piety won the hearts of those rough and ready newspaper men who occupied the room with him. It was William J. Bryan, who a month later thrilled the country with his "crown of thorns" speech.—National Magazine for August.

A BRIDE

On Honeymoon Jumps From High Tower.

Heinsdorf, Prussia, Aug. 24.—The bride of a week of Professor Rudolph Spitzer, of Sternberg, threw herself from the top of the Bismarck tower here, falling 1,200 feet to the bottom of the cliffs upon which the tower is built. The couple came here on their honeymoon.

The woman left a note addressed to her husband, asking his forgiveness and requesting that he marry another woman with whom he could be happy. Prior to their marriage the pair had been engaged for ten years.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of it in Hopkinsville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help. Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.

Not one so important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.

It is the kidneys' cry for health. Heed it.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

J. D. Christian, living on Clarksburg Street, Elkton, Ky., says: "My kidneys were disordered for a long time, and although I took many remedies, I never received relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They were so entirely satisfactory that I'm constantly recommending them to other sufferers of kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills certainly rid my system of kidney complaint in a remarkably short time."

Plenty more proof like this from Hopkinsville people. Call at L. A. Johnson & Co.'s drug store and ask what their customers report.
